

Dear Chairman Powell and Commissioners,

The airwaves belong to the public and we are entitled to have some small but meaningful portion of the time used by commercial networks on our airwaves devoted to public service. This is particularly true at election time. Make the networks set aside time for real candidate debates and discussion of issues by panels of experts.

Sincerely,

Jerry Richard
1009 W. Blaine St.
Seattle, WA 981192935